

Concise Witness Statement

Context

In 2019, while staying at the Thunderbird Motel in Las Vegas, New Mexico with my two daughters and their biological mother, I experienced an event that was not physical. Earlier that day, I played The Sound of Silence repeatedly, near tears, saying over and over: “They don’t want to go.” Later I learned this referred to the eternal paradise universe. The song itself describes what happens when the angel of music withdraws from this universe.

Departure

That night I had an out-of-body experience. I was taken straight upward, very far and very high, carrying a non-physical but real amalgam of every lie, rape, murder, deceit, and wrong, along with the emotional weight of every victim. Within it were small fragments of goodness, but as a whole it was repulsive.

Years later, after reading the Qur’an, I recognized this “huge sack of sins” as the same concept described in Qur’an 3:154 — “the contents of their hearts.”

The sack vanished the moment I arrived.

Arrival

I reached a place that is entirely spiritual, not located anywhere within this universe. It was utilitarian and unadorned. There were nine trapezoidal portals with rounded edges, grey-taupe in color, unmarked. I recognized them as portals to different creations:

- one to this universe
- one to the eternal paradise universe
- seven to various hell universes

This recognition was the first memory that surfaced.

The Woman

A woman was there, kneeling, and expecting me. I recognized her but could not immediately recall how. My mind and soul were not aligned.

Later, after my soul-level memories were processed through my prefrontal cortex, I understood who she is: the woman in the wilderness mentioned in Revelation, and my own female companion from the eternal paradise universe. We have known each other for eons, long before this universe existed. She traveled with me to the eye of the needle so my soul could be inserted into this universe, and she waits there for me to return.

The Place

The place itself is the eye of the needle referenced in both scripture traditions:

- Jesus: "It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."
- Qur'an 7:40: "The gates of heaven will not be opened for them, and they will not enter Paradise until the camel passes through the eye of the needle."

I did not read the Qur'an until years after the experience. This location is within the domain of God Almighty, where there is no material matter — only spirit.

Return

Exhausted, I collapsed on the floor. As I gathered my thoughts, the woman told me, "You have to go back." I replied, "You don't know how terrible that place is." Her face softened with a look of concern I recognized. Immediately afterward, I was sent straight back down to the Thunderbird Motel.

Aftermath

The next morning I told the entire experience to my daughters' biological mother. She was disinterested and only wanted to know where we were going for lunch.

It has now been seven years since this event.

Final Statement

As for the woman in the wilderness: If she were here, you would not be able to pry us apart with a crowbar.
